

El PuenteFlamenco

This group of fantastic flamenco musicians and dancers come together from Montreal and Ottawa to present an evening of pure flamenco excellence. In the tablao style of flamenco (small club atmosphere that brings the audience into the experience) this group transports in its intensity, focus, and the pure enjoyment they transmit. Singer José Luis Pérez ("Como Nieva") has a voice that brings every emotion to life; and both dancers Katherine Oliveri and Juliana Pulford bring years of performance experience to the stage as they embody those emotions. The nuance and extraordinary presence of guitarist Philippe Jean as he balances all the dynamics at play in this virtuosic group lend support to his moniker of "hottest young flamenco guitarist in Canada."

Starting with a rhythmic tour de force of footwork and percussion (Eric Breton: Master percussionist) this show grabs you from the first drop of the foot and doesn't let go until the last exalted number, which will have you on your feet crying for "uno más"!!
